The purpose of the Alarm Company Operator Disciplinary Review Committee (DRC) is to review applicants' appeals of the Bureau's denials of licensure and licensees' appeals of the Bureau's suspensions and imposition of fines. Specifically, Business and Professions Code section 7591.18 states the DRC shall perform the following functions as they pertain to alarm company operators, alarm company operator qualification certificate holders, alarm company employee registrants or firearm qualification permit holders licensed, certified, or registered by the Bureau under Chapter 11.6 (commencing with Section 7590):

- (a) Affirm, rescind, or modify all appealed initial Bureau decisions which concern administrative fines assessed by the director.
- (b) Affirm, rescind, or modify all appealed initial Bureau decisions which concern denials, citations or suspensions of a license, certificate, or registration except denials, or suspensions ordered by the director in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

Disciplinary Review Committee Members

Steve Sopkin

Respondents should add their names upon arrival to the sign-in list available in the designated waiting room in order for the committee to account for a Respondent's appearance for the hearing. Cases are heard in sign-in order. However, the Committee may hear a case out of order due to hardship-related circumstances. The committee will consider requests to be heard out of order on a case-by-case basis. Persons that are not listed as a Respondent on this Agenda are not required to add their name to the sign-in list. This is an open meeting and any person may attend as a member of the public.

NOTE: Depending on the length of the hearing, the Committee may break a short time for lunch around noon.
