Hearings are conducted by Administrative Law Judges (ALJs) under the auspices of the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH). You may attend the hearing of your case. You have the right to be represented by an attorney at your expense. You are not entitled to the appointment of an attorney to represent you at public expense. You may represent yourself, without legal counsel. Within reasonable limits established by the ALJ at the hearing, you may present relevant evidence, and you will be given an opportunity to cross-examine witnesses who testify against you. You are entitled to have the OAH issue subpoenas for your use to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, documents or other evidence. Contact OAH to obtain subpoenas.
