

Locksmith Company and Locksmith Employee Fact Sheet

Locksmith Company – Requirements for Licensure

A locksmith operates a business that installs, repairs, opens or modifies locks, or that originates keys for locks. (An individual who simply duplicates existing keys is not considered a locksmith.)

An individual, partnership, or corporation seeking a license as a locksmith must specify in the application the individual who will manage the business on a day-to-day basis. (An owner, partner, or corporate officer may serve as the manager, or may hire someone to fill this role.) In order to obtain the company license, each individual applicant, partner, or corporate officer must undergo a criminal history background check through the California Department of Justice (DOJ) and Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) to be evaluated on an individual basis.

To apply for a Locksmith Company license you must:

- Submit the application for licensure<sup>1</sup> along with the application and license fee<sup>2</sup>
- Undergo a criminal history background check through the California Department of Justice (DOJ) and Federal Bureau of Investigation

ALERT: Per FBI guidelines, you must submit your application to the Bureau before completing the Live Scan. To prevent application processing delays, keep a copy of the Live Scan form, which must include the ATI number and the signature of the Live Scan Operator. For more information on the Live Scan process and the associated fees, visit the Bureau's website<sup>3</sup>

- Submit two recent passport-quality photographs
- For a license under a fictitious business name, the application shall include a certified copy of the fictitious business name statement filed with the County Clerk.

How to submit your application:

- Online through BreEZe<sup>4</sup>: The Bureau recommends submitting and paying for your application online as it bypasses the Cashiering Office, which can reduce the processing time by up to two weeks.
