INFORMATION ABOUT PROPRIETARY PRIVATE SECURITY OFFICER APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION

PLEASE FOLLOW THE STEPS BELOW:

1. Complete a Proprietary Private Security Officer Live Scan form, which can be obtained from the Bureau or downloaded from the Bureau's web site.
2. With three copies of the completed Proprietary Private Security Officer Live Scan form, go to the nearest Live Scan site to have your fingerprints electronically submitted to the Department of Justice (DOJ) and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).
3. Pay the Live Scan Operator. Live Scan Operator fees are set by each site and vary. The fees include the DOJ and FBI fingerprint processing fees.
4. Submit the following to the Bureau:
 - (a) The completed Proprietary Private Security Officer Registration application.
 - (b) The second copy of the Live Scan form signed by the Live Scan operator, identifying the ATI number.
 - (c) A check or money order for: $50.00 (Initial Proprietary Private Security Officer Application Fee.)

Be sure to answer all questions completely and truthfully. It is mandatory that you provide all information requested. Any omission or misstatement may constitute grounds for denial or subsequent revocation of registration. A registration may be denied to any person who makes a false statement or who has been convicted of any crime or act substantially related to the qualifications, functions or duties of a Proprietary Private Security Officer, except those crimes excluded by the provisions of Penal Code section 19.8. However, when appropriate, the Bureau will consider all submitted evidence of rehabilitation.

Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 30, providing your social security number or individual taxpayer identification number is mandatory and will be used exclusively for tax enforcement purposes and for compliance with any judgment or order for family support in accordance with section 17520 of the Family Code. Your social security number or individual taxpayer identification number may also be used for verification of licensure or examination status for national examination where licensure is reciprocal with a requesting state. If you fail to provide your social security number or individual taxpayer identification number, you will be reported to the Franchise Tax Board, which may assess a $100 penalty against you.

Submission of the requested information is mandatory. The Bureau of Security and Investigative Services cannot consider your application for licensure or renewal unless you provide all of the requested information.

Pursuant to the California Public Records Act (Gov. Code § 6250 et seq.) and the Information Practices Act (Civ. Code § 1798.61), the names and addresses of persons possessing a license or registration may be disclosed by the Department unless otherwise specifically exempt from disclosure under the law. We make every effort to protect the personal information you provide us. The information you provide, however, may be disclosed in response to a court or administrative order, a subpoena, or a search warrant.

Per the Information Practices Act, the Chief of the Bureau of Security and Investigative Services, Department of Consumer Affairs, is responsible for maintaining the information in this application. You have the right to review the records maintained on you by the Bureau or Department unless the records are exempt from disclosure by section 1798.40 of the Civil Code. Your completed application becomes the property of the Bureau and will be used by authorized personnel to determine your eligibility for a license, registration or permit. Information on your application may be transferred to other governmental or law enforcement agencies, as permitted by law.

For questions about this notice or access to your record, you may contact the Bureau of Security and Investigative Services, Attn: Public Records Liaison, P.O. Box 980550, Sacramento, CA 95798-0550, by phone at (916) 322-4000 or (800) 952-5210, or by e-mail at bsis@dca.ca.gov. For questions about the Department's Privacy Policy, you may contact the Department of Consumer Affairs at 1625 North Market Boulevard, Sacramento, CA 95834, by phone at (800) 952-5210 or by e-mail at dca@dca.ca.gov.

Upon issuance of a permanent registration, you must notify the Bureau of any change of address within 30 days of the change (Business and Professions Code section 136).
