

INFORMATION ABOUT LICENSING

REPOSSESSION AGENCY AND REPOSSESSION AGENCY QUALIFIED MANAGER

This packet contains information about obtaining a Repossession Agency license and a Repossession Agency Qualified Manager certificate, descriptions of required qualifications, and license application forms. It is the policy of the Bureau of Security and Investigative Services (Bureau) to provide equal licensing opportunities for all persons without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, creed, marital status or sexual orientation.

The Bureau licenses and regulates Repossession Agencies and Repossession Agency Qualified Managers in California under the provisions of the:

- California Business and Professions Code 7500-7511
- California Code of Regulations (formerly California Administrative Code) Title 16, Division 7

No person may engage in the business of a Repossession Agency in California without obtaining the proper license from this Bureau. Any person who operates without a license, unless exempted, or who represents himself or herself to be licensed and is not licensed, is guilty of a misdemeanor, which is punishable by a fine and/or imprisonment. Licensing laws and regulations are subject to change. Applicants are responsible for staying informed of legislative or regulatory changes which may affect the status of their application. If any such changes affect the status of an application after it has been filed with the Bureau, the applicant will be notified.

NEW LICENSING FEES- IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Due to a change in the law, the fees for a Repossession Agency license and a Repossession Agency Qualified Manager Certificate are changing on July 1, 2018. The date the application is submitted in-person or online, or the date the application is postmarked determines if the old fee or new fee applies (see page 7 for breakdown of fees).

Be advised that an application received without payment of the full fee amount owed will not be processed and will be returned to the applicant.

GENERAL QUALIFICATIONS FOR LICENSURE

Each person listed on the application (owner, partner, corporate officer, qualified manager) is required to meet certain general qualifications regarding fitness for licensure.

The person who will be in active charge of the business for a Repossession Agency is referred to as the qualified manager or qualified certificate holder. Each company license must have one person designated as the qualified manager and that person must meet the general license qualifications as well as more specific qualifications regarding age, experience and examination. The qualified manager may be an owner, partner, corporate officer or any other person meeting the requirements for a qualified manager.

DENIAL OF LICENSURE

A criminal history check is made on all applicants through the completion of a Department of Justice (DOJ) and Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Live Scan. The director may deny a license if any person listed on the application as an owner, partner, corporate officer or qualified manager have done any of the following:

- Been convicted of a crime. Any conviction of any crime or plea of nolo contendere, even if the conviction was dismissed under Penal Code section 1203.4, 1203.4a or 1203.41 must be disclosed on the application.
- Committed any act involving dishonesty, fraud or deceit with the intent to substantially benefit himself or herself, or injure another.
- Committed any act which, if done by a licensee of the business or profession in question, would be grounds for suspension or revocation of the license.
- Knowingly made a false statement of fact required to be revealed on the license application.
- Had a license which is under suspension.
- Been refused a license or had a license revoked, or been an owner, partner or qualified manager of any business that has been refused a license or had a license revoked by the Bureau.
- While unlicensed, committed, or aided and abetted the commission of, any act for which said license is required.

If a denial of licensure is based on a previous criminal act by the applicant, the crime or act must be substantially related to the qualifications, functions or duties of the business or profession for which the application is made.

APPLICATION PROCESSING TIMEFRAME

The following items may affect the time required to process an application: incomplete application forms; incorrect or nonpayment of fees; passing the examination; the DOJ and FBI response time on criminal history checks; and the time required to verify application information.

Please allow a minimum of four weeks before contacting the Bureau regarding the status of an application.

FORMS REQUIRED FOR LICENSE APPLICATION

The following is a description of each type of form that must be included with the application. All required forms must be completed and submitted to the Bureau with the appropriate fees before the application will be processed. The attached Repossession Agency Application Forms Checklist on page 7 lists the forms required for a Repossession Agency license. Please check the completed application package against this list before submitting it to the Bureau.

APPLICATION FOR LICENSE (Form 31C-4) (fee required)

A separate Repossession Agency application must be filed for each entity applying for a license. For example, if a sole owner Repossession Agency also wants to have a partnership, the sole owner must file two separate Repossession Agency applications.

Note: If applying for a Repossession Agency Qualified Manager license only, there is no need to complete the Application for License (Form 31C-4).

Reassignment of License (fee required)

To request the reassignment of an existing Repossession Agency license, submit a letter addressed to the Bureau Chief. The letter should state the request for the reassignment and provide a brief explanation on why the reassignment is needed. Only requests where the direct and indirect owners of the assignor (current business organization) are identical to the direct and indirect owners of the assignee (new business organization) are potentially eligible for reassignment. If consent for the assignment is granted, then the payment of the processing fee authorized by Business and Professions Code section 7511 and California Code of Regulations section 642, must be submitted for the Bureau to carry out the reassignment. To apply for reassignment, submit:

- Letter addressed to the Bureau Chief, specifically requesting the reassignment with brief explanation of why reassignment is needed
- Repossession Agency Application for License (31C-4)
- Personal Identification Form for each principal involved in the business (31C-9)
- Repossession Agency Request for Authorization of Business Name (31C-12)
- If consent is granted by the Bureau Chief, payment is required to process the reassignment. Due to a change in the law, the reassignment fee is changing on July 1, 2018. The date the reassignment request is submitted in person or online, or the date the application is postmarked determines if the old fee or new fee applies.

Reassignment Fee for applications submitted in-person or postmarked:

- Before July 1, 2018: $125.00
- On or after July 1, 2018 $400.00

Business address: A post office box or mailbox service may not be used as the address of record unless mail delivery to the physical location of the business is not possible or the principal place of business is located in your personal residence. If a post office box or mailbox service is listed as the address of record, the applicant must include an explanation for doing so with the application and provide the physical location/address of the business.

Corporate Applicants Only: If applying for licensure as a corporation, include an endorsed copy of the Articles of Incorporation (Domestic Corporation) or an endorsed copy of the Statement and Designation by Foreign Professional Corporation Form (Foreign Corporation) filed with the California Secretary of State. A copy of the Statement of Information, filed with the Secretary of State, must also accompany the application.

PERSONAL IDENTIFICATION FORM (Form 31C-9) (no fee required)

Each person listed on the Repossession Agency Application for License as an owner, partner, corporate officer and/or qualified manager of the business must complete one of these forms and submit one passport quality photograph, taken within the past year. Any person who knowingly falsifies photographs required for licensure is guilty of a felony. Repossession Agency qualified manager applicants who do not have a current qualified manager certificate are to complete Form 31C-26.

If the applicant has ever been convicted of a crime, it must be disclosed on this form along with an explanation of the circumstances. Conviction(s) dismissed under Penal Code section 1203.4, 1203.4a or 1203.41 or a plea of nolo contendere must be disclosed.

APPLICATION FOR QUALIFIED MANAGER CERTIFICATE (Form 31C-26) (fee required)

This form is to be completed only by those persons applying for examination to become a qualified manager for a Repossession Agency and submit two passport quality photographs, taken within the past year. If the applicant already has a current qualified manager certificate he or she is not required to complete this form or pay the fee. After passing the examination, and successful completion of other requirements, a qualified manager certificate (separate from a company license) will be issued to the applicant.

If an applicant has ever been convicted of a crime, it must be disclosed on this form along with an explanation of the circumstances. Conviction(s) dismissed under Penal Code section 1203.4, 1203.4a, or 1203.41 or a plea of nolo contendere must be disclosed.

Upon receipt of this information the applicant may call the phone number provided in the handbook and schedule the date, time and location of for an examination.

Disclaimer: Successfully passing the Repossession Agency Qualified Manager examination does not guarantee the issuance of a Repossession Agency license from the Bureau.

Examinees requiring special testing arrangements due to a physical or mental impairment must submit a request to the Bureau for such arrangements. This request must be in writing and include supporting documentation from a physician or other qualified professional.

Re-examination: If an applicant does not pass the qualified manager exam, or is unable to attend the scheduled exam date, the applicant may apply to sit for the exam at a later date by submitting a written request or an application for re-examination (form is attached to the results notice) and the appropriate fees. The applicant will receive the candidate handbook and study materials from PSI. Once this information is received, the applicant may schedule an appointment with PSI to take the exam.

REQUEST FOR AUTHORIZATION OF BUSINESS NAME (Form 31C-12) (no fee required)

Business may not be conducted under a fictitious or other business name unless written authorization is received from this Bureau.

The Bureau recommends that an applicant wait until issuance of a Repossession Agency license before incurring expenses related to the use of the name, e.g., stationery, business cards, advertising, telephone listings, etc. for the Repossession Agency. Approval of a corporate name by the Secretary of State does not mean the name will be automatically approved as a business name by the Bureau.

The Request for Authorization of Business Name form will not be processed before receipt of an application and fees. List business names to be considered in order of preference. Name approval or disapproval is not available by telephone. Applicants who have already passed the required examination will be notified of name approval or disapproval after review and acceptance of the application. New applicants will be advised of name approval or disapproval with notification of passing the written examination.

Note: If applying for a Repossession Agency Qualified Manager license only, there is no need to complete the Request for Authorization of Business Name (Form 31C-12).
